

Are You Ready to Play a Bigger Game?

Has something been calling you? Maybe a whisper, a tug or a knowing there is something bigger waiting for you, possibly something your soul has been craving. The Bigger Game is a dynamic interactive workshop that naturally calls the better you yet to be expressed. This interactive workshop will honor the vastness that is you and will challenge you to new heights. As a participant you will perceive a greater and more daring life for you. You will look at your life and productivity through a much broader lens. You will be invited to call forth your personal best so you can dare to evolve beyond your present best.

Signs you are ready to play a bigger game:

- You are dissatisfied with the way things are in your world, organization, community, or neighborhood.
- You know there is a “better you” yet to be expressed.
- You ask, “Is this all there is?”
- You are hearing a call to serve some higher purpose, even if you are not sure what it is.

In this workshop, you will:

- Gain awareness of the best use of you and explore your Bigger Game.
- Identify what compels you to create positive change in your world.
- Understand how to harness your passion to develop new competencies and skills that evolve you beyond your previous best.
- Learn to remove the obstacles that keep you from living a daring and fulfilling life.
- Leave with tools that increase your “agility” as a leader and show you how to stay in action.
